Personal Insolvency

It is vital for individuals to seek practical, specialized help in cases of severe personal financial difficulty. At Berley we offer the same high level of standards and expertise in matters of personal insolvency as we do for our corporate clients.

Our experienced team is always on hand to provide a supportive resource that you can rely on at this difficult time, combining objective opinion with practical solutions.

We will first assess your current position, examine the possible options that may be open to you and then discuss how they can be implemented.

We accept instructions for Individual Voluntary Arrangements, bankruptcy and Deed of Arrangement.

Berley can provide representation at creditors meetings, on your behalf; on receipt of any notice of a creditors' meeting, just contact us and we will make all the arrangements.

“We’ve been able to tackle major challenges with renewed confidence.”
